“ May the memories of John Collodora be a blessing to those who knew him the best . His wife Judie was such a patient and caring person, gave John the best care and attention he needed in his last year's as his very devoted loving wife. May Judie be blessed with knowing she did her very best to care for John with the greatest  love and devotion a wife could ever give. God Bless you Judie. May God's Blessings and Graces be upon you Always. Your sincere friend in Christ, Larene St Gabriel-Dargay . Immaculate Conception Church.
