

John Eric Falldin

September 17, 1927 - October 24, 2020

Falldin, John E. age 93, of Fridley, passed away peacefully on Oct. 24, 2020. John was a 35 year employee of Gerber Products. John was an avid golfer who played for the University of Minnesota. He won many golf tournaments throughout his life such as the Star Journal Invitational, the Francis A. Gross Invitational, and the Resorters Senior Championship in Alexandria. John served in WWII. He was the tenth son of Mrs. Anna Falldin, who had the distinction of giving nine sons to the armed services during WWII. This is believed to be the most sons that any American mother had in the service at one time. John was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, and great grandfather. Preceded in death by father and mother, John & Anna Falldin; sister, Elsie; brothers, Leonard, Arthur, Herman (Lenora), Clifford (Wilma), Clarence (Hazel), Rubin (June), Kenneth, Morrie (Margaret), Wallace (Alice). Survived by loving wife, Margaret; children, John, Cathy (Marc) Desmarais; grandchildren, Whitney (Andrew) Thigpen, Mackenzie Desmarais, David, Joseph, Lindy (Cameron) Singleton; great grandchild, Lilly Thigpen; sister-in-law Hazel Falldin; and many nieces & nephews. Private services have been held.
