“ I have many wonderful memories of our friendship with John. We go back to the early 70's as best friends and neighbors. We didn't have alleys, so we could just walk across our yards to do our chit-chats. Many times we shared our friendship up to 3 times a week. We moved full time to Lutsen in 1988, but that didn't stop our long lasting friendship - we had lots of visits back and forth. John was good at sending newspaper clippings, so we kept up with the local goings-on. I lost my hubby, Bob, in 1993 and that somehow put a slack on our getting together like the OLD DAYS. Ester, I have enjoyed your friendship, as well. It's great that you have friends and family to get you through these hard days. Until we meet again,
