

John Grund

March 29, 2014

Grund, John P. age 82, passed away peacefully on March 29, 2014. According to his wish, the final days of his two-week battle with cancer were spent in his Edina home with his children's care and support. He was preceded in death by his parents, Cecelia (Anderson) and Walter Grund; and many of his close friends. He is survived by his loving wife of 54 years, Joan; son, Erik (Libby) Grund of Bloomington; daughters, Heidi (Walter) Poxon of Hopkins and Erin (Phil Jensen) Grund of Billings, MT; grandchildren, Kylie, Kira, Nathan, Andrew and Brent; as well as friends and other relatives. Born in Minneapolis, John lived in the South during his childhood before returning and graduating from Southwest High school. He both worked as a drafting engineer in the physics department at the University of Minnesota for 38 years and ran his own patent-drawing business until 2000. He also served in the Army during the Korean War. His interests included woodcarving, traveling, watching old movies and collecting/maintaining Jaguars and antique gas engines. Despite having traveled the world, his favorite destination was the family farm near Grygla, MN. Memorials to the following charity supporting dementia research: Lewy Body Dementia Association, 912 Killian Hill Road SW, Lilburn, GA 30047. www.lbda.org. “Joan, I know Jon only through you. I am sorry for your loss. Please share our thoughts of sympathy with the children. It has been so many years since I have seen you. I hope they have been good years for Jon, the children and you. We have lived in Mankato and they have been good years for Bruce , me, Chris and Stephanie. Our nephew's father-in-law suffered from Lewy Body also. We hope Jon's illness was brief. We are remembering you in our prayers. In sympathy, Shirlee, Bruce, Chris and Stephanie Ruble
