

John Robert Hacker, Sr

February 5, 1929 - January 26, 2023

John Robert (Bob) Hacker, Sr., of Bloomington, Minnesota, passed away at age 93 on January 26, 2023 at Amira Choice in Bloomington.

Bob was born February 5, 1929, to George and Josephine (Hoffman) Hacker in the Union community in Gibson County, Indiana. He graduated from Fort Branch High School and attended Vincennes University in Vincennes, Indiana. On September 1, 1950, he married his high school sweetheart, the former Bernice Jean Daugherty of Owensville, Indiana. Bob and Bernie have three children, John, Jr., Elizabeth Halbrook, and Thomas Hacker.

Bob was employed by Burroughs Corporation, now known as Unisys, for over 30 years. He worked his way up from bookkeeping machine serviceman to Regional Manager in the Upper Midwest Region. Bob was able to retire early and spent much of his spare time playing golf with his buddies on many of the Minneapolis city golf courses. Bob and Bernie were able to winter in Palm Springs and Phoenix and tour Alaska and Europe in their retirement years.

Bob was active in St. Michael's Lutheran Church in Bloomington and regularly attended until well into his 80's.. He also enjoyed reading, fixing "stuff" around the house, watching the Twins, Vikings and Gophers on TV and spending time with his children and grandchildren.

Bob is survived by his wife, Bernice, his children, John Jr. and wife Becky of Huntsville Alabama; Elizabeth Halbrook of Bloomington, Minnesota, and Thomas Hacker and his wife Colleen of St. Charles, Missouri. Bob has two grandchildren, Megin Halbrook and Jennifer (Halbrook) Aubin and her husband Daniel, and three great grandchildren, James and Olivia Aubin and Isabella Schreckengost, as well as many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, George and Josephine and his siblings, Raymond, Harlen, Edward, Milford, Helene, Leona, Viola, and Marie.