“Sharann, Lorrie, John and Mark: So sorry to hear of your dad's passing. I have fond memories of moving to Bloomington and growing up next door to you all. Your dad and mom were kind to our family. Among other memories of his kindnesses, I remember going flying with your dad, gun safety class and the time he took me up to your Mille Lac's cabin and you all tried to teach me to water ski. May God bless you with peace and new hope in the midst of your sadness.
