

John D. Horan

September 2, 2016

Horan, John D. age 87, passed away September 2, 2016 at The Glenn in Minnetonka. John was born June 28, 1929 at Ancker Hospital in St. Paul. John was the only child of Daniel and Sadie Horan. John attended St. Paul Johnson High School and college at St. John's Collegeville. He received his B.A. and Master's degrees from the University of MN. John was a Pharmaceutical Sales Representative for the Upjohn Co. for more than 30 years. In 1964 John moved his family into a new home in Eden Prairie where he lived for the next 50 years, enjoying many neighborhood friendships. John had 6 children, 8 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren. John's favorite hobbies were hunting and travel, which he often combined. After his retirement from Upjohn in 1985, he traveled to six continents on safari. He was a respected member and past President of the Minnesota Chapter of the Safari Club International. John was devoted to his Catholic faith and a faithful member of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Minnetonka parish. John enjoyed Vikings football, playing cribbage and bridge. The family extends a warm thank you to The Glenn Minnetonka and St. Croix Hospice for your special care and compassion. Private family service and interment will be held at St. Francis Xavier Cemetery, Windom, MN.
