“ To Jacks Family - I am so sorry for your sorrow, the loss of any child or sibling is just the worst - and when it is an accident life just seems so unfair. Know that Jack brought happiness to many people through his short years. He was a man who knew what he wanted and went for it. His love for life and motorcycles was clear. He was a spitfire, ambitious and always on the go.

I hope that you can recall the pleasant memories to soften the sadness. Hold onto his legacy and love for life. He experienced a lot in his time, always game for adventure and always respectful to others.

Jack spent many hours with our family working on their bikes, hanging out, at the lake with us and just stopping by for a visit. So many people feel the loss and will find an emptiness within. Sharing the stories and photos will help repair the hole in our hearts.
