“ Lausens, Nybos, Lindseys had a picnic and the main course was racoon. Uncle Jack kept saying we were eating road-kill. As a newbe to the family, I tried it. (But Bev made us chicken too).
And I've always appreciated Uncle Jack for at our wedding reception, he told Bev since neither one of us had fathers, he wanted to pay for the beer!

RIP, Uncle Jack! Love you!

“ From Cancun to every dinner or card game shared with Jack, his presence always made the event very special. Jack will always be alive in my mind and my heart, as he joins my deceased husband in the glory of God's presence. Jack, you are one-of-a-kind and ETERNAL in my mind.

To the family:
The wonderful memories will warm your hearts forever.

“ I love you so much grandpa! One of my favorite memories of you is playing “thunder canyon” in the pool when Katie, Molly, and I were little. Also, watching you play solitaire and diligently record every game on your notepad. Rest In Peace!
