Washburn-McReavy - August 25, 2020 at 09:22 AM

“ The service was so meaningful . Thank you Jon Zabinski, your words were so thoughtful . We continue to grieve with you . John loved his life and his family . He will live on in our hearts until we meet again . I am so grateful I was a part of his life . He will be missed tremendously . Thank you for having the service . I will cherish the wonderful times I shared with John . The crystal pool , baseball games and Valleyfair . Omg Valleyfair . Such a blast! John always made you smile and loved to have fun . Judy mentioned the psycho cookies he shared at Christmas . That was so funny . They were delicious ! We have so many wonderful memories . Rest In Peace John ❤️

“ John and I went to Disney World together with our children . His son Shaun and my daughter Brianna and niece Kelly had a blast ! Grandma Marge would take her grand kids to Disney World when they were 5 . We were very blessed. Our brother Tom and sister Peggy was also on the trip . We have so many fun memories of family time together with laughter and love . ❤️
