“ Johnny O!.. a name easily remembered and fun to say..Johnny Ooooooo!

*It is with heavy hearts we embrace the loss of a fellow ballplayer.
The Groebner family will keep your memory alive through our grandchildren by sharing the Johnny "O" stories..... baseball,fishing on or in the river, pheasant hunting and eating sandwiches in the truck... it has been a privilage to share these many Innings of Play on the Diamond of life with you .. we will miss you Johnny "O"

“ Johnny O You will be missed more that words can ever say. Your heart was so large, your capacity to give so generous, your commitment to family and friends so very deep - and your joy in embracing music...contagious. I am so glad you were who you were - and that you let me be who I am. Psalm 16:11 Pastor Grant

“ Our sympathy and condolences to Joyce and their family. We were shocked to hear the news~~~ because he looks so healthy and in great-shape. John and Joyce are faithful Church-goers at Cedar United Methodist Church. They're always there every Sunday. They never failed to give me a hug everytime I see them. I believe John plays the guitar, too and musically minded. I remembered he even gave one of his best guitars to our beloved Jeff Jacobus. May their souls rest in peace and happily playing their guitars and forming their own band in Heaven. I will never forget John~~~ his great smiles and the warmest hugs. Again, our condolences to Joyce and the family. We shall include him in our prayers. God bless!
