

Jack Sable

February 14, 1937 - March 24, 2019

Sable, John C. Jack Age 82 of New Hope died peacefully on March 24, 2019. Preceded in death by parents, Albert & Marguerite. Survived by brother, Jim (Sharon); children, Janet (Tom) Dold, Teri (Jeff) Pribyl, Paul (Sheri), John (Julie); special family friends, Virgie and Alan Robinson; 8 grandchildren, Tyler, Amanda, Josh, Jamie, Isaac, Eli, Brooke, Paige; 2 great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and many friends and longtime neighbors. After retiring from Honeywell with 30 years service, Jack spent his time rediscovering his passion for art. He shared his talents developing and teaching classes through District 281 Community Education. He enjoyed his service on the Sr. Advisory Board for the district as well. He was happiest at The Cabin, fishing and playing cribbage with family. He was a 40 year friend of Bill W. We will dearly miss his spirit, wit and humor. Memorial service Friday March 29, 11am with visitation one hour prior to service at: Washburn-McReavy.com Hillside Chapel 612-781-1999 2610 19th Ave. N.E., Mpls

“ Jack Sable was not only a loyal friend to so many people who crossed his paths as he moved across the spectrum of his life, he was an outstanding leader in his profession. He was able to call forth the best in those he supervised. For that's he was greatly respected. He is the patriarch of a loving family whose generations enjoy each other's company. I include two haiku remembrances.

*Jack Sable loyal
For all his listening ear
His gift of friendship*

*Sable family love
Unconditionally shared
Family united*

Also, it was no coincidence Jack left this world March 24, 2019, the 100th birthday of Lawrence Ferlinghetti, the Beat poet who founded City Lights Book Store in San Francisco. Jack groved to the Beat writers.

*With respect and love,
Ann Rzeszutko, Oro Valley, Arizona*
