“ Dear Carla,

Bob says to share with you he knows you have lost a best friend. And whenever you lose somebody close it's natural to believe you are guilty of not doing enough with your loved one while they were alive. But he knows you did a terrific job with Jack and your caring love for his health. And that you a did a really good job helping him get out of the Minnesota cold, and to the warm weather cruises you both enjoyed so much.

His pain and health problems are ended, and Jack is truly in a better place.

My affection and love to Katie and you.

Bob

P.S. I feel the same way Carla.
