

John Skriba

September 14, 2003

Skriba John M., age 87. Survived by wife, Pat; son, William; daughter, Michele Roush; grandchildren, Heather Pablico & Michael Roush; and 2 great-grandchildren. Born in McKees Rock, PA. Worked various jobs including the steel mills in PA and a painter on the Golden Gate Bridge. He went to sea at 16 and spent many years as a Merchant Marine. Later in life he returned to school and became the Port Agent in San Francisco and Seattle for the National Maritime Union. He touched everyone he met with his humor and had an intense interest in sports. He was loved by all. His remains will be scattered at sea. Washburn-McReavy 612-377-2203