

John R. Steuck

March 11, 1926 - July 15, 2025

John R. Steuck, age 99 of Golden Valley, MN passed away peacefully at his home of 66 years on July 15, 2025.

Born on March 11, 1926, to Elizabeth and Michael Steuck, John was raised in North Minneapolis and graduated from North High School before attending the University of Minnesota. A proud veteran, he enlisted in the US Army during WWII, quickly earning the rank of sergeant while serving in Italy.

On August 10th, 1945, John married the love of his life, Marilyn, beginning a marriage that lasted nearly 80 years. Together they raised three daughters and shared a life full of family, love and adventure.

John had a successful career in the construction industry. He spent four years early in his career as a project manager in Bogotá, Columbia before settling in Golden Valley. There, he built a life rich in friendships, community and cherished traditions.

Weekends often found him at the family cabin on Big Lake, boating with friends & family, playing Jarts and enjoying card games like bridge and cribbage.

He had a sharp mind for finance, a passion for the stock market and was a faithful reader of the wall street journal. He picked up the game of golf after retiring at the age of 57 and spent countless hours on the course, keeping him fit and youthful. He and Marilyn shared a passion for travel, embarking on adventures around the world, including more than 60 cruises and an African Safari. John also loved music and dancing, particularly the Polka- and was part of a neighborhood dance group and a gourmet dinner club that brought together great friends, food and laughter.

John is survived by his beloved wife, Marilyn; daughters Jill Deason, Jerilyn Huseby (Daniel), Deborah Monjazez; 12 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren.

John's life will be celebrated on Thursday, August 28th at Washburn-McReavy Glen Haven Chapel at 11:00, with visitation at 10:00. Interment at Fort Snelling Cemetery.
