

John Elliott Taylor

October 19, 1936 - August 29, 2022

Taylor, John Elliott 85, died Aug 29, 2022 leaving a legacy of love. He and Lisa were married for 56 years. While raising three children, Julie Hurbanis (Kevin), Fritz (Alyssa), and Andy (Shanna), they set a powerful example of how love sacrifices, stretches, and straddles difference.

We deeply loved our dad, our Bampa, our husband, our friend. His grandchildren were his special passion. He was Will and Ryan's fishing buddy; one of Sylvie, Sadie, and Mac's biggest cheerleaders; and a great audience for Avery, Jack, and Emma's latest adventures. He lived with integrity and faith, and put family at the center of his life.

He loved to golf, hunt, and fish with life-long friends and family; garden; tinker in his workshop; and take trips to Dairy Queen. When playing gin rummy, golf, or watching sports, he relished making (and winning!) bets, needling his opponent along the way. He believed in the power of duct tape to fix almost anything. He worked for 43 years as a stockbroker for Frances I. duPont, then PaineWebber. Long after his retirement, he maintained relationships with colleagues and clients.

Born in Minneapolis to Helen E. and George W. Taylor, he was the younger brother to Jean, whom he loved to tease. As a proud graduate of the Edina High School class of 1954, he helped organize many reunions. He attended Iowa State and the University of Minnesota where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Please join us to celebrate John's life on Fri, Sept 16 from 4-6pm at Washburn-McReavy 5000 W. 50th St., and Sat, Sept 17 at 1pm at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church 4439 West 50th St. Ice cream social to follow on Sat.
