

John Wedum

October 14, 2003

Wedum John A. Wedum, age 74, of Minnetonka. Born 8/12/29 in Alexandria, MN, passed away peacefully October 8 at home surrounded by his family and friends. Raised in the Kenwood area of Minneapolis, graduated from Breck School and the U of M. Served as an officer in the U.S. Navy. Returned to Alexandria and ran the family business until he retired, and focused his attention on the Wedum Family Foundation. John was past Chairman of the Board and Director of the Wedum Family Foundation since 1960. The Wedum Foundation built the U of M University Village and Keeler Apartments, and various assisted-living facilities in the Twin Cities. Past president of Citizens Scholarship Foundation of America and served as an honorary trustee (Dollars for Scholars). Past president of the LP Gas Association. He is survived by his wife, Mary Beth; daughters, Dana (Thomas) Kennelly of Minnetonka, Dawn (Wes) Downs of Idaho; sister, Carola (Robert) Palm of Arizona; 13 nieces & nephews. Preceded in death by his parents, Maynard C. Wedum & Delphine Bridge. Memorial service Tuesday, Oct. 14, 11 AM, with visitation one hour before at The Living Word Christian Center, 9201 75th Ave N., Brooklyn Center, MN. Private interment at the Kinkead Cemetery in Alexandria, MN. In lieu of flowers, memorials are preferred to MN Dollars for Scholars, Allina Hospice, The Living Word Christian Center, or the donor's choice. Washburn-McReavy Eden Prairie Chapel 952-975-0400