

John W. Wesenberg

April 17, 2013

Wesenberg, John W. Age 58, of Bloomington. 11/22/54 to 4/17/13. John died with great dignity and was encompassed in the love of family and community. Survived by his dear and beloved wife, Mary; sons, Matt, Danny and Alex (Morgan); father, Jack H. Wesenberg; sisters, Anne (Troy) Acker and Sue (Tom) Zwirner; and brother, Jim. Preceded in death by mother, Alice. A family man cherished and survived by nieces and nephews whom he advised of life even as he knew of his progressive brain cancer - GBM. He leaves behind a village of close extended family, friends and neighbors all made better by his active and sharing life. In lieu of flowers, make your gifts to N.C. Little Hospice or caringbridge.org/visit/johnwesenberg where you can interact with John's story of transition and all those who journeyed with him to the end. Special thanks to the care given John by all the doctors, nurses and staff with Allina Abbott NW. Visitation will be held Wed., April 24 from 5-8 PM at Washburn-McReavy, Edina Chapel, 952-920-3996. A celebration of John's life will be Thurs., April 25 at 3 PM with visitation one hour prior to the service at St. Edward's Catholic Church, 9401 Nesbitt Ave S., Bloomington. Reception to follow. Interment at Dawn Valley Memorial Park. "Moving Forward"
