“ I was always impressed with how gentle Rev. Jonathan was. We often sat by him at dinners and he would tell us stories of his childhood and relate instances of his work as a teacher. He was a wonderful, caring Christian man and he will be missed. He is at home in Heaven. Pastor Nancy Peterson

“ The Bradley Family of Greenwood, SC, sends condolences to the Berrys for the loss of your loved one, Bernard Berry. From Ruff and Lucinda- our hearts go out to you during this time of sorrow. Bernard is remembered with a great big laugh and a fun personality. We will always remember and be thankful for his sacrifices to serve his country. Ruff tells the story that after playing professional football for the Detroit Lions, he told Bernard, "Hey Bernard, I am finished playing football, and now I've gotta go to work." Bernard replied, "You go on to work Ruff, and do what you need to do because I got your back, and I will protect you by serving in the Army. I got you." Ruff (Luther Bradley) reflects, "That was so awesome, and I have always known that he meant what he said." Lucinda, who attended elementary school and college (SC State University) with him, has always remembered Bernard as a friendly, pleasant, and "fun to be around" person with a hearty laugh. Just know that Bernard will never be forgotten. Ms Berry has been a "saint" in Lucinda's life. She always came by my home with a beautiful smile and laughter, reminiscing about Bradley's life in Greenwood. Just know, she has the best memory of anyone I know with details. She will also tell you exactly what she thinks when necessary. I will always "love" Ms Berry (my mother's best friend). Ms Berry, "You did good" raising a great man.”
