

Jonathan Patrick Cook

March 6, 2014

Cook, Jonathan Patrick age 28 of Anoka on 3/6/14 from Osteosarcoma. Anoka Class of '03. Survived by mom, Carrie Cook; son, Kelan (22 mos); grandma, Patricia Cook; aunt, Connie (Tim) Haukom; uncle, Ed (Wanda) Guidry-Cook; cousins, Adam (Amanda/Henry) Cook, Ali White, Hope & Alex Haukom; cat-brother Charlie; and other family and friends. Jon was a Bindery Specialist at Target Corp. He was an avid Vikings and Yankees fan, and loved to golf. He had an amazing sense of humor and lit up every room he entered. He fought cancer for 4 years with strength and courage, never wanting it to be the focus of his life. He will be dearly missed by all who were lucky enough to have known him. Thank you to the Target Marketing team for their amazing support of Jon and Carrie. Thank you to Drs. Denis Clohisy, Keith Skubitz & Rafael Andrade and everyone at the Masonic Clinic at the U of M for their care of Jon over the last 4 years. Mass of Christian Burial at 10 AM on Wednesday, 3/12, St. Agnes Catholic Church, 548 Lafond Ave, St. Paul. Visitation Tuesday, 3/11, 4-7 PM, Washburn-McReavy Chapel, 1827 Coon Rapids Blvd, NW, Coon Rapids. Private burial. Please wear Vikings or Yankees attire to the visitation in Jon's honor. In lieu of flowers, please make a donation In Jon's name to the Zach Sobiech Osteosarcoma Research Fund at the Children's Cancer Research Fund (www.childrens-cancer.org). “ My condolences to everyone that Jon touched~
I met Jon when 2006 when I was 18 years old at a gas station in Cottage Grove. He was going to the casino with some friends and so was . I got his number and we met at Treasure Island. Shortly after Jon and I started dating. He took me to my first ever Twins vs. Yankee's game and truly treated me like a lady! :) I remember how involved he was with the game and thinking to myself wow i'm dating someone who loves sports just about as much as my Dad. I will never forget the time at the apple river... not to be discussed haha!

I am so thankful I got to see you in September 2012 and fortunate to have a picture that will touch my heart forever.

Jon, I wish I would have had a chance to say goodbye but I know you will look down on all of us from time to time so until then I will see you later.

I will never forget when you told me you love me... I love you!
