“ You left before we could finish our conversations. I'll always be pissed about that. Did you warn anyone?! I'll always miss you and I might be mad at you for years and years. Love you though, and our memories from when we were kids.

“ Jon,
Thank you for believing in me and always encouraging me. You were such a great mentor and I wouldn't be where I am today if it was not for you. My heart breaks as I am writing this. The last time I texted you was to ask you to be my reference for a position at the state and you did not hesitate. I will miss you dearly my friend. You are definitely an angel.

“ I met Jon while working as a purchasing agent for St, Paul Schools. I discovered that he was the younger brother of my former high school classmate Rich, who was killed in Vietnam. I found Jon to be witty, smart, and clever. AND BREWED BEER! We hit it off immediately. I was fortunate to meet his wonderful daughters and son. He was a good guy! My condolences to his family!

“ I have nothing but good memories of going to lunch with Jon and the Target QA gang. Often making the walk across downtown to Sorrento's. Jon always seemed to have a smile on his face and a laugh ready to go. My condolences to all of his friends and family. Rest in Peace Jon!

“ The news of Jon's passing has hit me a bit hard. You lose touch over the years, but I vividly remember working close with him for several years at Target. We took business trips to vendors in LA, Chicago, Cincinnati and WI (in the family minivan with 70s rock blaring). He was always kind and sincere when he needed to be...snarky and sarcastic in a funny way to keep me entertained. Condolences to all who loved him. RIP, big Jon!

“ I am really sorry to hear this news. Jon was a good friend and co-worker. I was just telling my in-laws last week a story about when Jon and I went to San Francisco for work. It's a funny story. I had a lot of good times and met some great people thanks to Jon.
