“ Though we have never met, we have served. Though we have never talked, we spoke the same language. Though we have never walked the same bricks. We know what it is like to walk those bricks. “ Though I didn't know Officer Gomm, I know he was a caring and giving man. I read about how he took the little fledgling Kestrel to the raptor center the day before he passed away. I am sure this is just one of the many stories of what a great person Officer Gomm truly was. My heart goes out to all of his loved ones at this time. Thank you for your service and may you rest in piece, Office Gomm.
