

Joseph James Greco, Jr.

June 14, 1933 - March 29, 2019

Joseph James Greco, Jr. 85, died on 3/29/19 at 4:33 PM at his home in Maple Grove. Joseph worked at Hennepin County Medical Center for over 30 years. He owned his own home in South Minneapolis for over 40 years, which was full of beautiful antiques and other collectibles. Joseph was in the Navy as an Electrician, Petty Officer 3rd class and served in the Occupational Forces in Germany between 1954-1956. He was honorably discharged. Joseph had a Master's Degree in Science in Adaptive Physical Education. He was an artist who enjoyed his craft of painting, had a studio and sold many of his works, including one that was featured at the Minnesota State Fair. He was an avid fisherman, who enjoyed the quiet solitude of the water and caught and cooked his own fare. He leaves behind 3 daughters, Melodie Irwin of Fridley, MN and Ormond Beach, FL, Glynnis Greco of Maple Grove, MN and Gillian Eberle of Ormond Beach, FL and 2 grandchildren: Jon-Martin Kahnke of Maple Grove and Jessica Eberle of Ormond Beach. He was with his significant other, Rondene Mehling of Minneapolis for over 30 years and they had many adventures together. Joseph was very close to his cousin, Bonnie Fleming of Smithville, New Jersey. Joseph donated and felt strongly about giving as a method of social justice. He joins his mother, Margaret Klaus and his father, Joseph Greco Sr. in heaven. Rest in Peace, Dear Father.
