“ My heart goes out to Marshall, Jane and the Kult family and friends of Joe in your time of sorrow. I know Joe has left you with many precious memories from his 37 short years with us. When death robs us of someone we love very much, it causes much sadness and grief. Our loving heavenly Father, "Jehovah (Psalm 83:18) is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit." (Psalm 34:18) Isaiah 33:24 guarantees us: "And no resident will say "I am sick," ever again. Revelations 21: 4 says: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." 1 Corinthians 15: 26 tells us: "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." I pray you will find some comfort to please watch this beautiful video (song 144) entitled "Keep Your Eyes on the Prize" https://tv.jw.org/#en/video/VODChildren/pub-pksn_24_VIDEO The family is in my prayers and I offer my heartfelt condolences. “ Dear Jane, Marshall, Jeff, Kirsten And Family: It is with great shock and sadness I hear of Joe's unexpected Passing. I can only hope and pray and believe that he has accomplished all he needed to and was ready for Eternal Life. His death at the perfect time for him, Death, the destiny of us all. I know you will miss Joe, very much. It is a time to grieve, and yet with belief in Jesus Christ also a time to Celebrate Joe's Life and Honor him. We must pray for Joe, and believe he has received Life Everlasting in the Lord Jesus Christ and has finished his mission of living. It also a time to reflect on our own death soon to come and get right with God. My prayers, sympathy, and thoughts will be with you at this sad time. Your cousin, Rick Taylor of Atlanta.
