“ My deepest condolences to Lynn and family. I found out today of Joe's passing and was shocked and saddened to hear the news. I had worked with Joe for nearly twenty years through fundraising at our school. I will always remember the time Joe and Lynn made a point to attend one of our concerts. It was so special to the kids that he cared about them and their singing. Truly one of a kind. I will miss him dearly.

“ My condolences for the loss of your husband, father, grandfather. loved one. We have never met, I am one of the "guys" from the club that he played racquetball with. I knew Joe as a tenacious individual who valued his family, work, and staying mentally and physically fit. He "badgered" me into playing with him left handed when his shoulder was so sore he could not swing with the right arm.

None of us knew he was sick or not doing well, no surprise as he never complained (other than too himself if he missed and easy shot). Sadly, I am out of town all week (in Atlanta) and thus, will be unable to attend any of the services. I will miss Joe and our time on the court.

May the Peace of the Lord comfort all of you, God Bless.

“ Lynn,
We've never met but we shared Joe. I grew up with him as we went to St. Joe's and St John's together. We had many sleep overs as boys and shared cub scouts during that time. So many memories as I sit here. Will both miss him but yours is the greater loss as he procured his legacy through you and your family. I was gladdened as the bible was used to picture Joe on the Holcomb website. My very best to you.
