“ I knew Joseph for most of the 14 years I worked at TSA. I would like his family to know that they can be proud of him for his incredible growth. He was persistent in his efforts to grow beyond his limitations and he succeeded beyond expectations. The shy young man I met in his early days at TSA became a confident and effective member of our team. The young man of few words became a profound philosopher when the conversation turned to his area of interest. Since my retirement, Joseph and I shared common interests in Facebook posts and I looked forward to our interactions. I miss him already.

I was
One of the last TSA employees to speak, laugh, and connect with "Joe-Joe". That is what he knew me by. I MISS Joe dearly. I want ALL of his family to know when we where at work on Wednesday, of last week, Joseph was smiling, laughing, and I will always be grateful for the honour of his presence. May GOD speed.
