

Ms. Josephine Anne Parvey

May 13, 1936 - November 15, 2023

Josephine A Parvey 1926-2023

Josephine, known as Joann, by all her friends & family, was born on a small farm in Pine City, MN on May 13, 1936 to Severin & Josephine Wanous.

She was preceded in death by her parents Severin & Josephine Wanous; husband Charles Parvey; brother Darwin Wanous; niece Connie Bullen; nephew Randy Van Gieson & brother in law Harley VanGieson.

Joann married Charles Parvey in 1953 and they were married for 58 years. They resided in Robbinsdale, MN and had one son, Douglas.

They loved traveling in their RV together, camping on the shores and fishing many Minnesota Lakes. She was a master bargain shopper & frequented many local restaurants in Robbinsdale. She loved taking pictures and often had her camera nearly everywhere she went. She took many, many pictures!

She spent her entire career working as a teller at TCF in Robbinsdale. She loved her job very much and retired in 2008 when she was 72.

Later on, Joann would fall in love with dancing. She frequented the local venue where she loved dancing to her favorite band "Tailspin". She made many new friends who loved her dearly. She always made sure to attend family functions but would sneak away to make it in time for dancing!

Joann will be remembered by the "Lady in Red", clicking her camera away capturing moments of all her loved ones at family gatherings. She very rarely missed these special moments. Family meant everything to her.

Joann went to live with her son Douglas & daughter in law, Dana, in Indian Rocks Beach, FL; where they took care of her during her final chapter.

Joann is survived by her son Douglas & daughter in law, Dana & kitties of Indian Rocks Beach, FL; sister Marilyn Van Gieson of Rago, KS; sister in law Karen Wanous of Coon Rapids, MN; brother Sev (Bonnie) Wanous of Ramsey, MN; sister Sue (Roger) Muecke of Blaine, MN; brother Gary Wanous of Andover, MN; 16 nieces & nephews and many other family & friends.

“ Have been thinking about Joanne and tried calling her with no answer. You have my sympathy Douglas and think about all the good times we enjoyed living next to you. I am the only one left in our family and I am 86.

“ I have great memories of JoAnn from about 10 years ago. She and her friend Dave would go to Billy's in Rockford for dinner and dancing. She loved to dance and I loved watching her smiling and dancing. She was a wonderful sweet lady who lived a great long life but will be missed by many. RIP Joann.
