[two photos - one high school and one recent]

Josephine Ann Stahly, age 78, was born on April 18, 1946 in Georgetown, Kentucky and died May 26, 2024 at Friendship Village in Bloomington, Minnesota. She was preceded in death by her parents, Richard and Svea Shipway. She is survived by her brother, John Shipway (Lydia) of Seattle, Washington; nephews, Christopher and Anthony Shipway; stepmother, Beth Shipway; cousins; and friends.

Jo was a longtime resident of Edina, Minnesota and a graduate of Edina High School. She earned a degree in Home Economics from the University of Minnesota and a Masters of Business Administration from the University of Saint Thomas. She worked in business administration roles at ThermoKing and at Blue Cross Blue Shield of Minnesota. She was an avid follower of the stock market and loved to talk about investing. Her other interests included reading, Minnesota Gopher football, and keeping up to date with her clan of Anderson cousins. She had a beautiful smile, a friendly laugh and a sweet personality.

Jo's family is grateful for the caregivers who supported Jo while she was a resident in assisted living at York Gardens in Edina and in the Linden skilled care unit at Friendship Village in Bloomington during the last years of her life. Her Minnesota cousins will miss their routines of visits to see her.

Gathering at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, June 15, 2024 at Washburn McReavy Funeral Chapel at 5000 West 50th & Highway 100 with graveside service and interment to follow at Lakewood Cemetery.
