“ Josh was a good neighbor and a great dad. He wanted to provide a good life and opportunities for his kids: fishing, four-wheeling, baseball, to name a few. Many neighbors this past week have talked about seeing him and Joe out playing catch last weekend in the front yard. This is how Josh will be remembered in the neighborhood--loving and supporting his kids. We continue to pray for his family, especially Corky, Jamie, Leah and Joe. Please let us know if you need anything!
