Thank you for putting this on line! So sorry to have not been there in person for you all, but the feelings and love and joy and peace of God were all still there! Such a beautiful service! I'm sure Joyce loved every minute of it! It was honoring to Joyce and God, and a celebration of her life!! Beautiful Joyce! Tears of grief and tears of joy! You fly Joyce!! All our love!!

“ Dear Betsy and Billy, I watched the service tonight and it was so nice. I'm very sorry to have missed being there in person. Joyce was cute and funny and always so sweet to me. My Dad loved her and Janet so much. I believe there is a big Peck family picnic going on in heaven right now. God Bless you with wonderful memories and peace.

“ Hello Family. I'm sorry I missed the ceremony! You should have turned the camera the other way because now I am listening to everyone's voices but cannot see anyone. I hear Betsy and Shelley and Billy and a lot of Minnesota speak-ya know.

Good Bye Joyce, I barely knew you but do know your family will miss you in their lives.

“ I have known Joyce (a.k.a. Mrs. Boom) since I was 4 yrs old. Because Betsy and I were such good friends I spent a lot of time at the Blume's house. As a child, Joyce seemed Omnipresent in my life, like a mother would be. Joyce was always so gracious and honest, she was a compassionate listener, empathetic, caring, devoted, gentle and a really, really, good sport. Only Betsy and Billy know what I mean when I say she was a good sport. Suffice it to say as kids Betsy and I could be really squirrely. I loved Joyce and even though she has passed away now, I will always carry her in my heart, like a caring mother.

“ What a fun lady to visit. I had the pleasure to assist Joyce for short visits from Oct.2020 to Jan.2022. When I entered her Apt. she would say with a smile "what are we going to do today?" Always pleasant to me and had a great sense of humor. We enjoyed talking about her many memories. She loved her children, grandchildren, and family very much. Enjoyed her view of the lake from her chair enjoying all the seasons. Each visit I read a short meditation from a prayer booklet and she always said thank you after. When we walked the hallway with her walker she had great posture. That was important to her. She smiled and greeted her neighbors and visitors. She always thanked me when I would leave. I think I received more Blessings than she did! I will miss her visits. Sandy
