“ I will never ever forget my Jawsie. I know i will see her again in another life. She was and is my favorite sister. I think about her everyday and every minute. I miss talking to her every day. I mourned so hard for her when she passed and still am but i am doing better now. Just glad she got a hold of me in 2007 and got to talk to her everyday and was blessed to go visit her in 2009. I will love you forever jawsie magawsie

I just wanted to share some more memories for my favorite sister. She was like a Mother to me also and i so miss talking to her everyday. This has been the hardest year for me since she has been gone. I never thought mourning could be so hard. I hope to see her again for sure. I miss u jawsie if you see me writing to you.
loving you forever
