“ Joyce was such a sweet lady. I enjoyed visiting with her at our Edynamos meetings. I don't know if daffodils were her favorite flower but she certainly enjoyed them when I could bring them from my garden.
My sympathies to the Ervin and Phenow families.

My sincere condolences to the Ervin and Phenow family. She must've been a very very sweet woman to have raised a daughter as kind and sweet as Jody God bless and keep them all in the palm of his hand during this difficult time.

Remembering Joyce over so many years participating in cabin weekends and family centered gatherings. Her whole family cared for her so well which was an amazing example of strength and grace in Christ.

Praying God's blessings of peace in this time of loss.

Love, Mick and Melanie

*I echo Diana Severson's message; she must have been a wonderful mother to have raised Jody to be so good and kind. It's a strange and sad day that first morning you wake up and your Mother is no longer with you. Our hearts go out to you, Jody.
Big hugs of peace and comfort from Marcia and Lowell*
