“Joyce and I met in our Fridley neighborhood because we both had and loved our red golden retrievers!! Joyce was such a beautiful person, inside and out. She was a treasured friend that I always admired, respected and loved. I was so saddened to learn of her death. Joyce exemplified what most of us aspire to be. Carol, I am so sorry for you but you must believe with every fiber of your being that you gave her the ultimate gift; you gave her your very self. I am with you in my thoughts, in my prayers and in my heart.
