“ So sorry to hear about the passing of my dear cousin Judy. I shall always remember her as the caregiver, or "big sister" when I would stay overnight at the house in Golden Valley. Jerry and I would play ball and roam the neighborhood but Judy was probably keeping an eye on us all the time. Then when we would have family 'banquets at Grandma Aune's or at your house in Golden Valley she was the take charge person. Maybe because Aunt Helen was so frail, Judy would end up doing the "heavy" lifting. And Judy and Dick (what a contrast)--Dick always teasing uncle Emil about the fire department calls and "Did you save the basement?" quips. Just a big jokester, and then Judy being the serious one who would need to rein him in sometimes. I really believe that Dick wore the pants in that family but Judy bought them for him. I hope you all get a chance to remember the fond memories you have of Judy. She always had such a prim and proper appearance that reflected the really good person she was. Shall miss her.giggles and her smile. Cousin Jim
