“ The last time I saw Judy was last Tues.,Jan. 3rd. I took her to a morning Dr.appointment. She was with the Dr. for an hour. Then we went to the Pancake House for a late breakfast. Both of us ordered Cherry crepes which were delicious. We were by the fire place, reminisced about our moms making them and us making them for our families.it was relaxing.Then she ran out of oxygen; she didn't think we could get the 7 min. drive to her house without it.The Manager called the Paramedics who came quickly and hooked up a backup tank. They followed us to the house to get their tank back. Basically it was a good morning. She was happy to get out of the house for awhile. We've been friends for 30 yrs. Diane Loch
