Slifer, Judith H. ,age 80, of Minneapolis, formerly of St. Louis, MO, died Oct. 3, 2005. Preceded in death by daughter, Janet. One of Judy's most endearing characteristics was her zest for living and new experiences. She loved gourmet cooking, food and wine, flowers and herbs, travel, music, dance and classical literature. Some of her happiest years were through her involvement as a co-owner of Montelle Winery. She had a passion for all animals, but especially her cat Thomas and her 'grandpets' Clep, Lucy and Chet. She took an intense interest in the people she met in daily life, from the nurses at her medical clinic to the people who worked at her hair salon, to her friends at church and in her neighborhood. Right through the last day of her life, she reveled in her family, friends and the sense that life is an adventure everyday.
