Judy Ann DuPaul

March 25, 1946 - August 10, 2025

Judy Ann DuPaul, age 79, of Golden Valley, Minnesota, passed away unexpectedly on August 10, 2025. Born on March 25, 1946, in Northfield, Minnesota, Judy lived a life filled with compassion, warmth, and deep devotion to animals and the people who loved them.

A lifelong animal lover, Judy built her beloved business, Labor of Love Pets, from the ground up more than 35 years ago, operating it out of her own home. What began as a humble idea turned into a thriving pet grooming and sitting service that touched countless lives. Her work wasn't just what she did - it was who she was. She continued caring for animals with love and dedication right up to the end, never stepping away from the work that brought her so much joy and purpose.

Judy was known for her incredibly kind and generous heart - always willing to help others, even complete strangers. Her compassion knew no bounds. She had a natural gift for connecting with people from all walks of life, and could strike up a meaningful conversation with absolutely anyone, no matter their background or story. Her warmth and openness made everyone feel seen, heard, and valued.

She also showed incredible strength throughout her life, overcoming numerous health challenges that many thought impossible. She was, in every sense, a medical miracle - a fighter who never gave up, and who defied the odds time and again with courage and determination. Her resilience inspired everyone around her. Her care team and doctors often spoke of the light she carried, and the courage with which she met every challenge. She was deeply loved and respected by those who cared for her.

She is survived by her grandson, Jereme DuPaul, and his girlfriend, Carly Ulrich; Jereme's father, Wayne Enger; her brother, Terry Rousseau, and his wife, Dorothy; along with many loving nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Jolene DuPaul; her husband, Bruce DuPaul; her sisters, Pamela Haynes and Linda Rousseau; and her mother, Charlot Rousseau.

A Celebration of Life service will be held on September 27th at 11 AM, with a visitation one hour before and a reception to follow at Unity Christ Church in Golden Valley, MN.

In honor of Judy's lifelong devotion to animals, the family encourages donations to a local animal rescue organization in her memory.

Judy's life was truly a labor of love - for animals, for people, and for the world around her. Her spirit, kindness, and boundless heart will be missed more than words can express.

“ Judy lived on the next block from me and I always knew that when one of my dogs got loose, I needed to get over to Judy's house bc my dogs loved her. This act alone speaks as to she was--a friend to all animals. She was a very kind person. Every time I've passed her house, I've said a prayer for her. I really miss her.

“ I went to Wilson high school with Judy. She was a great person. Her grandmother babysat my brothers. Her dad Bud was a good friend of my father's. Just a great family. Judy left us too soon. RIP.

“ We moved in across the street from Judy. The day we were moving in, she came over to introduce herself. My grandkids fell in love with her. We've since moved but still made trips back just to see Judy. She was an amazing soul and if you were lucky enough to have her touch your life, you'll never forget her.

“ My aunt lived down the street on the corner of Elmdale and Judy was always the “dog lady” even back when I was in high school in the 90’s. The most positive and greatest attitude. She would walk her husky late at night and walk past Caroline’s house and always stop to say hi. Even when Caroline and I would be in trouble for laughing so loud so late at night she would join in just to be a part of our pack. I loved hearing all her dog tales. Judy was an inspiration for me to foster dogs and I have been doing it for years. It is a great loss and her love for Jeremy was inspirational. 🐾 RIP. I know she will be checking in on the rainbow bridge and saying hi to all our fur babies that have passed. 🌈

What a beautiful tribute for this lovely lady. My husband, Bryan, and I were saddened to hear that Judy had departed this planet. She had such joy of life and was warm and inviting whenever we encountered her on our neighborhood walks. Will remember many conversations that we had with her during our walks, her outings in her red convertible and her positive attitude as she went through many health challenges. May she find eternal peace surrounded by her loved ones including all of the 4-legged friends she adored.
