“ Julee was my walking partner; we spent many years walking together around the French Park path and she earned a title "Ruby Walker" by my husband Steve. We became close friends and neighbors as we talked a lot in our daily 3-mile walk. I learned from Julee that she loved her family very much and could not talk enough about her grandchildren. Sometimes we were even on a walk with a stroller with one of her grandkids. Rain or shine we were walking and talking. When I moved Julee would show up to walk with me because she really missed that. I know that I will miss her walking with me but most importantly her friendship and her kind words.
