“ Anyone that spent time with Julie knew she had an energy that was uniquely hers. Julie made us all feel that the relationship with her had its own special place in her heart. One thing that was universal was her love for animals and she loved them all. From the littlest baby squirrel, to kittens , birds, wildlife etc. I am not sure I will ever see a basement as awesome as the beach themed one she created at Poppy.

“ I remember her creative talents. She wrapped presents that looked like they came from Bloomingdales gift wrapping service. In her early 20's she visited Hawaii and created a Hawaiian Luai dinner party for the family that looked like we were at a 5-star hotel on the Big Island. . Dad wore his suit 😊. Her hands created the tiniest, detailed, Christmas ornaments. And she made Baby Cakes! Beautiful, intricate baby items arranged to frost the cake. Tiny socks folded to look like roses. With rattles and diaper pins. The cake itself made from folded towels or diapers. They were a professional artistic wonder and she sold many. Lots more to her creative talents.
