“ Gary and family, I am so sorry to hear about your mom. We are always so close to our mom's (it seems) and it changes things forever for us especially when it's our last parent to go. It's another part of our journey in the book of life. My own mother was born a year different than your mom and she went on her eternal journey when she was 76. Way too soon, as it always seems. Thinking about you and all that loved her. Perry Ruedy, Mpls.
