“ We were next door neighbors in a twin home with June since 1999 and more than once thought we should just put a doorway from her side to ours. As the years went on we took June with us to movies. I received considerable ribbing about choosing Billy Bob Thornton in "Bad Santa". Lord, I had not idea how many 'f' words were in that movie. Sometimes, we would have June over for supper and tease her to 'be careful' on the way home (all she had to do was go around our garage corner to hers). Of course, in the winter it could get pretty slippery. In the better weather June and I would go for walks along Northdale Blvd and during one of those walks, we decided to become 'sisters'. And it was really nice to chose to be 'sisters' rather than just a fact of life. June accompanied us to church and than we would have breakfast at Nicholas. When we made the decision to move down by my family here in Wisconsin, it was very difficult for all of us. We missed her, but could still keep in touch by phone and visits down here or back up in Coon Rapids. You've lived a long and sometimes difficult life, girl. You deserve to have a comfortable chair in heaven. Love, Leonard and Joyce Toepper
