

June Lindholm

June 5, 2011

Lindholm, June A. June walked into the presence of her Lord & Savior early Wednesday morning, May 25, 2011 at Colonial Acres. Her gentle smile and friendly spirit will be missed among us. Please remember Roger, their family and friends in prayer. June was born November 9, 1926 in Worcester, MA, the only child of John and Anna Carlson. In 1943 she met a young man, Roger Lindholm, in the church youth group. He was visiting his parents as he waited to begin his service with the United States Army. They began dating and then corresponding as Roger went overseas. After high school, June studied to be a Medical Secretary and worked in various hospitals and doctors' offices during her career. June and Roger were married in September 1948. Survived by husband, Roger, after 62 1/2 years of marriage. Also survived by daughters, Karen (James), Debra (Robert) and son, David (Joy); six grandchildren, Joshua, Christienne, Kathryn, Jennifer, Stephanie, and Samantha; one great-grandchild, Levi. Once their children were grown, June returned to her work in the medical field. She was also busy volunteering as a Sunday school teacher and Superintendent, working with the college and young adults, the Christian Women's Club and many other committees and programs. Roger and June enjoyed traveling and saw much of Europe, the United States and parts of Central America after their retirement. June and Roger joined the community of Covenant Village of Golden Valley in May 2001. Memorial service 2:00 pm Friday, June 24 at the Covenant Village Fellowship Center, 5800 St. Croix Ave. N., Golden Valley. Visitation one hour prior to the service. Memorials preferred to the Covenant Village Benevolence Fund or Cornerstone Church, 3420 Nevada Ave. N., Crystal, MN 55427.

Washburn-McReavy Glen Haven Chapel 763-533-8643