“ Junine was such a special lady. She had the most beautiful handwriting and such a special way of expressing herself with pen and paper. I used to tell her she could write verses for Hallmark's cards. My mother Edith Buss, along with several other ladies from church - Lois Posselt, Doris Fondrick, Maxine Hanson, Evelyn Peterson, Adeline Freeman as well as others, along with some of us "younger ladies" - would enjoy going out to eat after church and on other occasions as well. Mother and Junine used to have many telephone conversations. I remember hosting a tea party for the ladies and what a fun time. Junine and I were also in choir together. Special memories, special friendships. May your special times now become special memories which in turn, will become treasures to you. My thoughts and prayers for you all during this tender time.

*With love and prayers,
