

Justin Dean Johnson

August 13, 2014

Johnson, Justin Dean age 39, a beloved dedicated father of four and respected estates and trusts attorney entered into eternal life on Wednesday, August 13, 2014. He was a valued partner at Stoel Rives, LLP in its Minneapolis office. He was a tremendously hard working, compassionate and earnest legal advisor to his vast spectrum of clients and aptly employed complex estate planning principles with ease. He will be remembered for his sharp wit, love of Paul McCartney and the Beatles, and Snickers bars. But mostly, Justin will be remembered for his uninhibited and unwavering deep love, devotion and dedication to his four children: Chloe (12), Claire (10), Carter (8) and Camden (4). Also survived by his wife Kate Westad, mother Patricia Johnson, father Kevin (Barb), brothers Clinton (Giselda) and Brandon, grandfather Eugene Herbert and countless loving aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. We love you daddy! “ I worked with Justin at Monroe Moxness Berg. He was such a wonderful person to work with. He was always smiling but always walked with a purpose. He was very proud of the kids and his wife and beamed when I asked about them! I'm so sorry for your loss. He had many, many friends, relatives and clients who loved him and he will be missed! His legacy will always be remembered. Best wishes for the family.
