“ Dr. Li hired me at NDSU back in 1995 at NDSU and gave me my start in academia. I will never forget his kindness over the years. And I will never forget his worst of wisdom that helped shape my career. I am so sorry to hear of his passing.

“ I was a student of Dr. Li's at NDSU. He was one of the kindest and most knowledgeable people we had as an instructor. He worked us harder than any instructor at the time, but NOBODY did a better job preparing us for the real world we would face as engineers. I loved Dr. Li, and am sorry that he has left us. I have carried him in my heart and memory for years.
