

Karen Lynn Boe

September 7, 2017

Karen Lynn Boe, age 67 passed away unexpectedly at her residence in Ham Lake, MN on Sept 7th 2017.

Born July 7th, 1950 to Walter and Justine (Voegeli) Camp in Bagley, MN. After high school Karen married her high school sweetheart, Douglas Boe. They moved to Anoka where they started their family, having two sons, Todd & Chad.

Karen was a daycare provider, worked at Thermoserve and later went on to assist in running the family business, Boe Ornamental Iron.

Karen enjoyed cooking, crocheting, collecting dolls, shopping, reading, spending time with family, entertaining, and most of all spending time with her grandchildren. She had a contagious giggle and was full of laughter and joy.

Karen is survived by her children, Todd Boe (Marlene Zaffke) and Chad (Heather) Boe; grandchildren, Makenzie, Hayley and Peyton Boe; siblings, Bennett Camp, Diana "DeeDee" Rahier, Kim Camp; and many other family and friends.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Walter and Justine Camp; aunts, uncles, grandparents and great grandparents.

Visitation 4-7 PM Monday, September 11; funeral service 2 PM Tuesday, September 12 with visitation one hour prior at:

“ Karen, Our prayers and thoughts go out to you Chad/Heather & those beautiful Grandgirls. & also to you Todd. She was taken way to soon and had so much more time left here on earth to share that smile with. May the angles above watch over her and God wrap his arms around her and keep her safe until we all meet again,

Love Always Karen
