

Karen Kay Larson

March 22, 1945 - May 27, 2021

Karen (Katie) was born on March 22, 1945 in a sod home in Dickey County North Dakota. She was the third of four children born to Bill and Edie Heinrich. Bill moved the family to Redwood Falls, MN and it was there that she met the [eventual] love of her life. When "Chrisy" first set eyes on her, he told his friend, "I'm going to marry that girl." Although she didn't return his affections immediately, his persistence paid off. They were married on June 1, 1963 and shortly thereafter, their son Jeff was born. Katie was a natural mother. You can see by the photos the adoration in her eyes as she looked at this little baby boy. In 1966, she gave birth to her daughter Michelle. This little family is where her love legacy really took root.

Over time, the little family grew. Katie had three grandchildren: Christopher John, Joshua and Jacob. These three grandsons gifted her with four great grandchildren, Konsondra, Tyler, Bria and Wyatt. She dedicated her life to her family and if you asked about her greatest joy, it would undoubtedly be a tale about one of these beloved people. She was active in each their lives, taking every opportunity to spend time with them. She showed everyone in her family just how much they were loved and how special they were to her.

Chris and Katie also developed many friendships over the years that brought so many stories, so much laughter, and so much joy into their lives. Wherever they were, their home became a gathering place for friends and family. The door was always open, and it wasn't uncommon to see the table surrounded with people enjoying some special meal she prepared. Her cooking was just one of the magical ways she brought people together to create special memories.

We could fill page after page of words to describe the impact this beautiful woman made in the lives of those around her. Instead, just ask one someone who knew her about their favorite memory. You may need to settle in and prepare for a good laugh and a good cry, but it will be worth it. Her memory will live on in all of those who loved her.

Caring sister, beautiful wife, loving mother, grandmother and great grandmother and dear friend. Our lives will be less bright without you here, but we promise to carry on and still gather, doing the one thing you would want us to do-laugh and love one another.
