“ With deepest Sympathy to Diane and Rick.

Diane and I were childhood friends, especially close from age 4 to 6th grade. Since we were both Diane's, Karen was probably the one to decide I was Dee Dee and her child Di Di. Karen would make our tomato soup with milk and a peanut butter sandwich. My Mom made it with water. Karen spent time talking with us, always making me feel like I was a grown-up. She allowed us to watch The Lone Ranger, Sky King, Roy Rogers and our favorite, Flash Gordon. Karen also let us bring home kittens who lived to be fat, old friends. I was a bride's maid for Di Di, and remember Karen helping with our dress selection and fabrication of the special heavy lace veil.

Karen was always cheerful and talkative. Her garden was expansive and filled a side yard with flowers aplenty to decorate mud cakes.

Our moms remained friends through church activities at Calvary. With warmest memories.

“Imagine the adventure that it has been to be Diane Moe's mom! I treasure the memories of doing puzzles with her by the fireplace at the lake, and trading laughs with her in her basement apartment. I love all the special mementos and treasures she kept near to her, especially Diane. I love that she loved both her daughters and son the best she could at a time when there was not much support for outliers with dreams. I am so grateful that she could be a grandmother to mothers with a sense of justice for their kids and inventors who both love their mothers and enjoy underwater adventures. A woman who lives so well for so long must do so with an open-mind and comforting stories. I hope all of you will take the opportunity to share your powerful family stories with friends and family every chance you get because that I have found, is what moves us. My wish for each of you is a mighty, gentle Spring with memories of your mom, grandma and great grandma that paint a healing and hopeful tomorrow.
