“ I admired the way Karen cared about people--she stayed in touch, always asked about others. She had a simple, inner joy that made her so easy to like. Rest in peace, Karen.

“ Karen was one of our Simpson family. I picked her up and dropped her off many times after a church function, or Sunday service. Karen was sweet, funny, kind, and could always fill you in on the sports scores! I miss her smile, and sense of humor.
