“ So saddened by the death of my cousin Karen and the anguish for the family. I fondly remember the togetherness we shared as youngsters growing up. Much love to our family as we grapple with the loss.

Karen and I never met in person but we were close as online friends, keeping in touch for many years. She often called me her "best friend" and we stayed in touch throughout her illness. I will always remember Karen as a bright light who made me smile. Music fed her soul and she shared her passion when she helped me to pick out a nice guitar for my son. I am thankful Karen is no longer in pain and she is in God's hands now, as we return her to the Lord. I will miss you, Karen.
